Preparation for the Word

The Call to Worship (Psalm 5:1-8)

Leader: Give ear to my words, O LORD; consider my meditation.

People: Hearken to my cry for help, my Sovereign and my God, for I make my prayer to you.

Leader: In the morning, LORD, you hear my voice; early in the morning I make my appeal and watch for you.

People: For you are not a God who takes pleasure in wickedness, and evil cannot dwell with you.

Leader: Braggarts cannot stand in your sight; you hate all those who work wickedness.

People: You destroy those who speak lies; the bloodthirsty and deceitful, O LORD, you abhor.

Leader: But as for me, through the greatness of your mercy I will go into your house; I will bow down toward your holy temple in awe of you.

People: Lead me, O LORD, in your righteousness, because of those who lie in wait for me; make your way straight before me.

Gospel Lesson Luke 7:36-8:3 (page 61) Rhonda Johnson

One of the Pharisees asked Jesus to eat with him, and he went into the Pharisee's house and took his place at the table. And a woman in the city, who was a sinner, having learned that he was eating in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster jar of ointment. She stood behind him at his feet, weeping, and began to bathe his feet with her tears and to dry them with her hair. Then she continued kissing his feet and anointing them with the ointment. Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw it, he said to himself, 'If this man were a prophet, he would have known who and what kind of woman this is who is touching him—that she is a sinner.' Jesus spoke up and said to him, 'Simon, I have something to say to you.' 'Teacher,' he replied, 'speak.' 'A certain creditor had two debtors; one owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. When they could not pay, he cancelled the debts for both of them. Now which of them will love him more?' Simon answered, 'I suppose the one for whom he cancelled the greater debt.' And Jesus said to him, 'You have judged rightly.' Then turning towards the woman, he said to Simon, 'Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave me no water for my feet, but she has bathed my feet with her tears and dried them with her hair. You gave me no kiss, but from the time I came in she has not stopped kissing my feet. You did not anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment. Therefore, I tell you, her sins, which were many, have been forgiven; hence she has shown great love. But the one to whom little is forgiven, loves little.' Then he said to her, 'Your sins are forgiven.' But those who were at the table with him began to say among themselves, 'Who is this who even forgives sins?' And he said to the woman, 'Your faith has saved you; go in peace.' Soon afterwards he went on through cities and villages, proclaiming and bringing the good news of the kingdom of God. The twelve were with him, as well as some women who had been cured of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary, called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out, and Joanna, the wife of Herod's steward Chuza, and Susanna, and many others, who provided for them out of their resources.
