O gracious Lord, who fulfills every promise, we confess our doubts. When we are hurting, we lose sight of your glory and your purpose for us. Jesus died on the cross and rose from the grave, demonstrating your plan for us, where death is not an ending, but a beginning of eternity with you. Forgive us, Lord, when we forget the joy that comes after suffering. Fill us with hope so that we may share it with those around us who need it most. Fill us with your holy Love when we forget how to love. Fill us with assurance when we doubt. Forgive our near-sighted ways, Father, and lead us into your fulfilled promise through Christ.
