WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTSBrian Lee, Worship Leader

WE APPROACH GOD

CALL TO WORSHIPBrian Lee

Leader: O God, how majestic is your name in all the earth.

People: Your majesty is the music of the starry skies yet even children can sing your praises.

Leader: In the name of the Healer, the Provider, and the Enabler, let your gratitude and joy be made known.

People: O God, how excellent is your name in all the earth!

(please stand)

* OPENING HYMN "For the Beauty of the Earth"
(music prerecorded; see page 3)
JoAnn Pendley, Pianist & Organist

* CALL TO CONFESSIONBrian Lee

Leader: If we say we are completely put together, the truth is not in us.

People: But if we confess our distractions, our errors, and our anxieties, God will meet us and renew us.

* UNISON PRAYER OF CONFESSION by John Birch

You call us to be your voices in this world and we stay silent. You call us to be your hands in this world and we keep them hidden. You call us to be your feet in this world and we go our own way. When we meet those who are doubting and say nothing, forgive us. When we meet those who need your touch and do nothing, forgive us. When we are called to take up your cross and carry nothing, forgive us.

* MOMENT OF SILENT CONFESSION

(service continues)

* ASSURANCE OF PARDONBrian Lee

Leader: God has promised that whenever we repent and seek a new union with God, forgiveness is ours.
That promise is true. ...Sisters and brothers, know that in Christ Jesus, we are forgiven.

All: Thanks be to God! Amen.

Refrain

Lord of all, to thee we raise this our hymn of grate - ful praise.

In the course of many revisions, the original eucharistic emphasis of this text has shifted to a hymn of thanksgiving for a wide range of human experience, with a Christological summation. It is set here to the tune that is customary in North America, though not elsewhere.

This tuneful retelling of the salvation story began in Swedish and was translated into German and then into Russian before reaching its English form. Despite such linguistic and musical revisions, it continues to be a meaningful source of comfort to many people.
