

was condemned in the presence of an earthly judge, that we should be absolved before the judgment seat of our God; that he suffered not only the cruel death of the cross, which was accursed by the sentence of God, but also that he suffered for a season the wrath of his Father, which sinners had deserved. But yet we avow that he remained the only, well beloved, and blessed Son of his Father even in the midst of his anguish and torment which he suffered in body and soul to make full atonement for the sins of the people. From this we confess and avow that there remains no other sacrifice for sin. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER (unison)All

... Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTSDavid Schooley, Worship Leader

WE APPROACH GOD

CALL TO WORSHIP (Colossians 1:15–20)David Schooley

Leader: This morning as we worship let us look to Our Lord and Master and be reminded of His goodness and grace to us. As we begin our service let us read together this passage out of Colossians 1 that reminds and encourages us to see Christ for who He is, our King of Kings:

People: Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature: For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him: And he is before all things, and by him all things consist. And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence. For it pleased the Father that in him should all fullness dwell; And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.

All: Let us worship God.

+~ CALL TO CONFESSIONDavid Schooley
(Call to Confession continues – panel 2)

Let us confess our sin before God and one another.

+ PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)All

Dear Heavenly Father, we lower our heads before you and we confess that we have too often forgotten that we are yours. Sometimes we carry on our lives as if there was no God and we fall short of being a credible witness to You. For these things we ask your forgiveness, and we also ask for your strength. Give us clear minds and open hearts so we may witness to You in our world. Remind us to be who You would have us to be regardless of what we are doing or who we are with. Hold us to You and build our relationship with You and with those You have given us on earth. Amen.

+ MOMENT OF SILENT CONFESSION

+ ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESSDavid Schooley

Leader: God is slow to anger and full of compassion. He forgives all who humbly repent and trust in his Son as Savior and Lord. There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

People: Thanks be to God!

And all God's people joyfully say, "Amen".

+ STATEMENT OF FAITH -
CHAPTER 9, CHRIST'S DEATH, PASSION, AND BURIAL;
SCOTTISH CONFESSION BY JOHN KNOX (unison)All

Let us confess our faith:

So we confess, and most undoubtedly believe that our Lord Jesus Christ offered himself a voluntary sacrifice unto his Father for us, that he suffered contradiction of sinners, that he was wounded and plagued for our transgressions, that he, the clean innocent Lamb of God,

ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR THE WEEK OF NOVEMBER 14, 2021

WELCOME TO BETHEL!

GUEST SPEAKER: JAMES (JIM) DYE

Bethel welcomes Jim Dye who will be the Guest Speaker today, October 24th, 2021.

Jim grew up in a family of strong Christian belief and has grown in his faith over the years. He believes in the full inspiration of the Word of God and saving grace only in our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ and his lordship over all aspects of our lives. Jim teaches a very active class at First Presbyterian and is serving a second term on the Session of that church and was part of the negotiating team that led his church in departure from the PCUSA. Jim has preached at Bethel before and has always done a marvelous job! Please let him know how excited and appreciative we are of his joining us for worship again!
